“When we conduct our training courses, our first choice is the events room at the Thames Lido. This option is practical due to its onsite parking and proximity to the center of Reading, including the train station and various amenities. However, it’s the venue itself that garners compliments from our delegates. The pool and restaurant, glimpsed on the way in, provide a touch of luxury that assures them of a day of learning in comfort.

Upstairs, in the events room, the floor-to-ceiling windows flood the entire space with natural light, and the terrace that spans the length of the room serves as a welcoming area during coffee breaks. Once our day of training is complete, our team enjoys coming together to savour the delicious tapas in the restaurant.”

“ I cannot stress enough, if you're fed up with the usual cold, clinical, corporate venues that charge a fortune for a mediocre service, get in touch with the team at Thames Lido to see how it should be done! ”

Our history

Thames Lido is the result of a three-year sympathetic restoration project of a historical landmark in Reading: The Edwardian Kings Meadow swimming baths which first opened in 1902. Tucked away behind a leafy path right by the River Thames, our urban retreat is open to the public all year round. Visitors are welcomed with a quirky and colourful design, honouring the building's original architectural features.

“But as soon as I walked in the front door, I fell in love...”
